

Third Annual
Multidisciplinary
Trauma Symposium
Tuesday, June 15, 2021

“Gun Violence Prevention and Public Health: It’s Everyone’s Lane”

Featured Keynote Presentation by
Stephanie Bonne, MD, FACS
Division of Trauma and Surgical Critical Care
New Jersey Medical School at Rutgers University

Audience:	All health care providers, including physicians, RNs, EMT professionals, pharmacists, respiratory therapists and physical/occupational therapy professionals
Cost:	Program provided free of charge by St. Joseph Mercy Oakland Trauma Services
Agenda:
9:30–10:00am	Registration
10:00–10:10am	Welcome from Trauma Services and Announcements , Shannon Striebich, President; Alicia Kieninger, MD, Trauma Medical Director; Christopher Lopez, MSN, Trauma Program Manager
10:10–11:00am	Mangled Extremities , Kevin Grant, MD
11:00– 11:50am	The Blunt Truth on Penetrating Chest Trauma , Ryan Saab, MD, Emergency Associate Director
11:50am–12:00pm	Break
12:00–12:50pm	Keynote — Gun Violence Prevention and Public Health: It’s Everyone’s Lane , Stephanie Bonne, MD
12:50–1:20pm	Lunch
1:20–1:30pm	Afternoon Welcome and Announcements , Alicia Kieninger, MD
1:30–2:20pm	Hot Topics (Q&amp;A at end) <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The Diagnosis and Management of Blunt Cerebrovascular Injury, Michael Maiden, DO</li><li>• Management of Rib Fractures: Patterns, Pitfalls and Pearls, Haley Lanser, DO</li><li>• Whole Blood Transfusions: Should We Do It? Anna Shu, DO</li></ul>
2:20–3:10pm	When Stopping the Bleed is What You Need: Anticoagulant Reversal in the Trauma Patient , Kristen Felice, PharmD
3:10–3:20pm	Break
3:20–4:10pm	EMS Trauma Protocol Updates — TXA, Triage and More , Steve McGraw, MD, Oakland County Control Authority Medical Director
4:10–4:20pm	Closing

For more information, call 248-758-7065
To register, please visit stjoeshealth.org/TraumaSymposium